

Small but mighty. Addressing the specific contexts of small and medium sized organizations (SMOs only)

Collaborative session between Digna and

Spur Change

January 27th, 2021

Canada

inter-council network Provincial & Regional Councils for International Cooperation

Please rank the trainings in order of relevance to your needs

How can we better support you and your organization to PSEA?

Offer trainings

resources in various languages

Linking to resources

Training opportunities

Digna is doing a great job of providing trainings and networking opportunities among SMOs. I think it is great to continue to do what you are doing!

through training

More practical sessions - moving from policy to practice. Community of practice perhaps

Making resources available, including methodologies and approaches in training local teams

Trainings

How can we better support you and your organization to PSEA?

Resources and best practices

Learning about implementation plans.

definitions: example helping distinguish between abusive relationships and questionable ones

share what other orgs are doing well, particularly SMO orgs

La formation des formateurs Adapter les formations aux contextes socio-culturels variés

Samples of high quality support mechanisms already created by other SMOs.

offer some centralized services. Maybe legal advice or support?

share ideas of how to accompany local partners in their own work on this issue

training sessions, provide resources in local language

How can we better support you and your organization to PSEA?

Regular training sessions, current examples of situations that have happened to others, shared resources

Ability to ask questions by email and get quick responses

Aide dans la validation de nos outils

Maxime likes Mentimeter eh?

Community of practice and groupes d'échanges entre les organisations

Identify resources for local partners

Trainings in different languages

Practical sessions, examples of the tools developed by local partners